

Clinical Institute of Brain is a hospital located in Ekaterinburg, Russia.

Clinical Institute of Brain is a hospital located in Ekaterinburg Russia. It's the biggest of the nation's leading hospitals specialising in medical treatment research and rehabilitation after injuries and strokes. Clinical Institute of Brain is a modern neurological clinic for patients who have suffered strokes neurological disorders traumatic brain injury or spinal cord injury. Our Clinic is the only one in the country specialising in the treatment of the patients in a vegetative state. The most important are methods to recover consciousness in a coma state and after serious reanimation. In 2004, the Clinical Institute of the Brain was founded by Andrey Belkin Doctor of Medical Science professor of neurological diseases anesthesiology and intensive care of the Ural State Medical University chief specialist of medical rehabilitation in Ekaterinburg the Sverdlovsk region and the Ural Federal District Pr. Belkin. Our clinic is located 10 miles from the center of Ekaterinburg. Clinical Institute of Brain is approximately 20 minutes from Koltsovo International Airport. Clinical Institute of Brain is a 40 bed rehabilitation facility includes a 4 - bed Intensive Care Unit Clinical Institute of Brain is regional Center consists of day-and-night hospitalintensive care unit of policlinic and consulting mobile

Link to article:: Clinical Institute of Brain is a hospital located in Ekaterinburg, Russia.