

Your name: Your phone*:

Your name Your phone Send We will conduct a free consultation right now. Modern neurosurgical center was founded by honored scientist of Russia, member of Russian and American Associations of neurological surgeons, M. D. Professor Georgy Samuilovich Tiglium and a Doctor of medicine fellow of the American College of Surgeons Frank S. Lechera. Currently, the center conducts a whole range of neurosurgical operations. We employ the most talented professionals neurosurgical Institute. A. L. Polenov. In our center carried out the examination and treatment of patients at the modern level with the use of a number of new microsurgical techniques. Patients are accommodated in comfortable single rooms with all facilities under the supervision of highly qualified medical staff. When performing neurosurgical operations on the original patented techniques for avoiding venous disorders of the arterial circulation of the brain as well as cosmetic defects to preserve cerebral function. During operations on the spine with a herniated disc or spinal tumors - significantly reduced the invasiveness of surgical intervention is reduced to 2-3 days stay in

Link to article:: Your name: Your phone*: